Hi Luke

How are you? How's the new house? Are you enjoying the nightlife in Buenos Aires?

I started my new job last month so I now have a good routine. I'm enjoying the work, but it's hard because I get up early every day (you know how I like to stay in bed late!). I try and go for a swim most days before work because there's a gym and swimming pool in the building. It's relaxing and I feel very good after the exercise. I'm in the office at 8:30 and first of all I check my emails. You can't imagine how many emails I get every day! Because we're an international company with offices all over the world, we get a lot of emails during the night as well, so we're always busy. There's no time to sit and do nothing! I've got some really nice colleagues and we usually go for lunch together on Fridays. On the other days, I go shopping or I go for a walk when the sun's shining and sometimes I stay at my desk and have a quick sandwich – not very healthy I know.

I don't know many people here, so I like going out at the weekends. Of course I have a lie-in on Saturday and Sunday and if there's an interesting exhibition on, I go to that. I want to join some local clubs as well, maybe hiking or tennis.

I'm having a lazy day today because I'm really tired and it's raining. I stayed in bed until 11 o'clock and now I'm sitting at the computer and writing emails to friends. I'm staying with my cousin at the moment, but I really want my own apartment. It's quite stressful because everything is so expensive here, but I'm looking. My cousin is very kind, but she enjoys doing different things and her lifestyle is quite different from mine.

This evening we're going to a concert together. I'm not sure who is playing, but I think it's a classical concert.

When I have my new apartment, you must come down and stay with me! Write soon and give me your news.

Sing!

Today a lot of singers and actors use their fame to raise money for charity. You only have to go on the internet and you can see just how many things they do. A celebrity name at a charity event can raise thousands of dollars and it is a good way for these people to give something back to the world that has made them rich and famous.

One such person is Scottish singer songwriter Annie Lennox. She was born on 25 December 1954 into a poor family. She grew up and went to school in Aberdeen and when she was seventeen she moved to London and went to the Royal Academy of Music where she studied the flute and classical music for three years.

A few years later she met Dave Stewart and between 1977 and 1980 they were in a group, The Tourists, where she was the lead singer. When the band split up, Annie and Dave formed a new band: Eurythmics. Together they recorded several albums. They sold more than 75 million albums worldwide, with over twenty international hits. They didn't officially separate but Annie started a solo career in the 1990s. Her first solo album, Diva, was released in 1992 and sold around six million copies. Since then she has recorded several albums.

However, Annie Lennox isn't just a successful singer and musician. She is a dynamic charity fundraiser* and over the years has achieved many great results. In 2007, she recorded a fundraising single called Sing with a 23-member choir of female celebrities including Madonna, Shakira, kd lang, Dido and Celine Dion. The money they raised went to Treatment Action Campaign (TAC), an organisation which works on the African continent.

Multi-award winning Annie Lennox has come a long way since the 1980s when she was the singer with Eurythmics. Since then, she has become a successful solo artist and has raised money for many charities including Amnesty International, Greenpeace and Nelson Mandela's 46664 Foundation. She does a lot of her charity work through the internet, which she calls 'Laptop Activism', and encourages everyone to do something to make a difference.

*Fundraiser: someone who collects (or 'raises') money for charity by organising events

Neel Akash

Indian & Bangladeshi Restaurant

A

I was very happy to receive an invitation to the new Indian restaurant last week, so I called my dear friend Louis and we went to the Neel Akash, which means 'blue sky', to see what all the fuss was about.

B

The Neel Akash is near the town square at the end of Sussex Street, opposite the library. It is very central, so we walked there, but it is easy to get to from the train and bus stations and it also has its own car park.

C

The restaurant has only been open for two weeks, so it still feels very new. The décor is traditional with a lot of wood and dark reds and greens. The lighting isn't too bright and the atmosphere is warm and friendly. I particularly liked the flowers and candles on all the tables. There were already a lot of people there, so it was lively but not too noisy.

D

When we arrived, a pleasant young waiter showed us to our table which was in the window overlooking the garden. As soon as we sat down, another waiter brought the menu and took our drinks order. He explained the different dishes to us, recommended the specialities of the restaurant and then gave us some time to make our choices.

E

I love Indian food and wanted to taste everything, but in the end I ordered a selection of starters for us to share. We had shami kebab – spiced lamb, aloo chat – spicy potatoes, and egg akuri which is egg cooked with onions and served with bread. For my main course I had chicken tikka korma which is a mild chicken cooked in a cream sauce. I don't like very spicy food so that was hot enough for me. This came with delicious boiled rice and nan bread. My friend ordered a very spicy fish curry which he had with a side dish of raita which is yoghurt with cucumber. Everything looked perfect and tasted absolutely delicious.

F

When the bill came we were pleasantly surprised as it was very reasonable. We paid £20 per person which included drinks and a tip. For a cheaper option, you can have a buffet lunch during the week which costs £7.95 and you can eat as much as you like for that.

Hi Maria

How are you? I hope everything's OK over there and the sun is finally shining! It's been such a bad winter, hasn't it?!

This is the first time I've managed to get to an internet café, but I'm here now and have lots to tell you. I'm staying with friends of Dan's in Seattle. I didn't know them before I came here, but now I feel like part of the family. They've been so kind and have taken me all over the city.

It often rains here on the west coast, but the weather has been great since I've been here so I'm really lucky. On my first day, I decided to go downtown to walk along the water front. There's a famous market there called Pike Place Market. It's one of the oldest (over 100 years old) and biggest markets I've ever been to. I really couldn't believe my eyes! The colours and smells were just amazing. I had lunch in a restaurant called The Athenian where Tom Hanks ate in my favourite film Sleepless in Seattle. The views were fantastic, but the food wasn't that great.

I'm here for another week, so I want to visit some of the museums and galleries and maybe go to the theatre as well. We're going to the Space Needle (another big tourist attraction) for dinner this evening. The restaurant is at the top of the Needle and it moves round slowly so you can get a view of the whole city while you're eating. I'm really looking forward to it as they say the food is the best in the city.

Although I really like it here, I feel quite strange sometimes because of the language differences. I know we all speak English, but we don't really speak the same language at all. A lot of people here find it difficult to understand what I'm saying because of my accent and it's the same for me. And there are a lot of different words as well. Did you know that 'cookies' are 'biscuits' and 'pants' are 'trousers'?!

I think I can honestly say that I have never been to a country of so many superlatives. Everything here really is the biggest, the best, the smallest, the worst, the highest, the greatest. Welcome to America!

I've got to go now, but thanks again for looking after my flat (or is that apartment?!) while I'm here. I'll bring you back the best souvenir I can find!

Love

Every month we invite our readers to write in and tell us about someone special in their lives. (0) This month's winning entry is by Richard Jackson.

I suppose when you're young you don't really think about the people around you.

(1) _____ Now that I'm a father, however, I think about things differently and I realise how lucky we were as children.

I grew up on a farm. I had two younger brothers and one older sister, so I was in the middle. Our father used to work very hard because it was his farm. (2) _____ Our mother used to teach at the local primary school so we spent a lot of time with our grandparents who lived with us.

Our grandmother was an amazing woman. She got married when she was very young and she had six children, which was quite usual in those days. She stayed at home to look after all of them, but when they were older she decided she wanted to go to university. She graduated when she was fifty years old. (3)

Before we were old enough to go to school, she used to look after us. (4) _____ She taught us to read and she told us stories about her life, but perhaps the most important thing she taught us was that we can do anything if we believe we can.

My grandmother died ten years ago, but when I look at my family now, I can still remember her words. (5)

Reading

- 9 Read the guide to Bratislava. According to the text, are the statements true (T), false (F) or not given (NG)?

Slovakia joined the European Union in 2004 and since then it has become more and more popular with international tourists. There are many beautiful cities to visit, but the best known, and the largest, is Bratislava with a population of around half a million. Not as well-known as other central European cities like Budapest, Prague and Vienna, however, Bratislava remains relatively unspoilt. It lies on the river Danube with neighbours Hungary to the south and Austria to the west.

There is something for everyone here. You have to visit the old town and the castle and you can spend hours walking through old streets looking at the wonderful architecture of the old buildings. There is an eleventh-century cathedral as well as many palaces, museums and art galleries.

If you enjoy films, you should come to the international film festival which takes place every year in November and December. In fact, there are many other film festivals during the year as well.

For shoppers, there are a lot of small shops and boutiques where you can easily spend many hours. And you shouldn't miss the Christmas markets in December where you can buy traditional decorations and try traditional Slovak food and drink. There's always a great atmosphere and it is certainly a pleasant way to meet the local people.

For people who are more interested in activity holidays, the nearby mountains offer great sporting opportunities. In the summer, you can go hiking or cycling along the excellent walking trails or if you are brave, you can go swimming in the icy mountain lakes. In the winter, the conditions are usually excellent for skiing. If you prefer to watch sport, then you can watch a noisy hockey game.

Bratislava offers all kinds of accommodation from cheap hostels to luxury hotels. The nightlife is exciting with clubs, bars and restaurants. So why wait? Come and see the beauty for yourself and we're sure you'll want to come back again and again.

I've got some really important exams next week. If I don't get really good results, I won't get a place to study medicine at university and it has always been my dream to become a doctor. I'm not sleeping and I can't concentrate and I've lost my appetite as well. Can anyone offer me some good advice?

Desperate, Brighton

Have you tried yoga? I know it sounds crazy, but sometimes you really need to just close your mind and stop thinking. There are a lot of yoga books and DVDs around, so you don't have to join a class. Since I started doing yoga a year ago, I can't tell you how much my life has changed. You find some kind of inner quiet where your mind stops 'talking', you concentrate on your breathing and you feel energised afterwards.

Ronnie, Sydney

Physical exercise is really important for balance. Our lives are so busy these days. We have deadlines, targets, ambitions and challenges and while we are so busy following these dreams, we forget about balance. Most of us live in our heads all the time. If you're like me, you probably spend a lot of time at the computer or sitting with books and papers. You should take a break from studying at least once an hour. If you have a garden, go outside and just look at the flowers and trees and listen to the birds.

Max, Los Angeles

Sing! That's my advice. Put on your favourite music, dance and sing. Don't worry about the neighbours or the dog! Whenever I feel depressed or stressed I put on some music. Simple as that and I'll bet you fly through your exams.

Lydia, Jo'burg

Go to the gym as often as you can. Physically hard exercise makes you feel much more alive and focused. You should try to train at least four times a week and of course it's important to eat healthily as well. Try not to eat sweet things as the high you get from the sugar disappears very quickly.

Brad, Ontario

You need to switch off your brain so why don't you get some DVDs of your favourite comedies and treat yourself to an hour every day before you go to bed? Then you'll go to sleep feeling happy, not thinking about physics and chemistry. While you sleep your brain will process all the things you have learned during the day, but in a better way.

Hi Laura

It was great to get your email the other day with all your news. I'm so glad that things are going well with Paul. He sounds really nice. When can I meet him?!

Speaking of men ... guess what – I've met someone too! A friend of mine Carol (I don't think you've met her) suggested speed-dating as she's been on her own for a long time and she'd like to meet someone special now. Well, you know me ... I always enjoy doing different things, so I agreed to go. Actually, I wasn't looking for anyone for myself as I'm quite happy on my own, but I knew that Carol wouldn't go if I didn't go with her.

So, we arrived at the venue – it was a big private room in the town hall. We were a little early, so we sat down and had a drink. I think Carol was quite nervous. I didn't know what to expect so I felt fine! At 7 o'clock exactly, the organisers started the evening and they explained what we had to do. So, all the women sat down at small tables and the men walked around. We had three minutes to talk to each man. Some of them were really boring, but one or two were actually quite interesting. Well, one was very interesting! Then we changed places and the women walked round. It's a very strange way to meet people I must say, but at the end of the evening Martin came up to me and asked me out (you shouldn't really do that but he decided to break the rules!). I was very surprised, but I agreed to go and we went on our first date yesterday. He took me to his favourite Thai restaurant and as I love spicy food I was very happy with his choice! We didn't stop talking and the time went so quickly. He's taking me out again at the weekend. We're going to go for a picnic on the beach.

Who knows what might happen, but I certainly wasn't expecting anything like this. Unfortunately Carol didn't meet anyone, so I feel a bit bad as it was her idea in the first place.

Let's meet up next week and go for a pizza.

Love

Work to live or live to work?

When you realise how much of your life you will spend working, it's important to make good choices when you think about the career you want to follow. Our parents retired when they were sixty or sixty-five but in the future the retirement age may rise to seventy which means that an average person will be in employment for about fifty years! It's a frightening thought if you're doing something you don't enjoy.

There are so many jobs to choose from and so much information available. You can do research on the internet, get advice from your school or college, ask friends and family or perhaps you'll be one of the lucky ones and know exactly what you want to do when you are very young. The majority of people aren't born, however, knowing that they want to be a musician or a writer or a surgeon or an explorer, so for them the choices are difficult.

If you want to run your own company, do you have the right personality? Are you determined, organised and motivated? If you want to be a teacher, do you love your subject? Are you patient and relaxed? Perhaps you want to be a journalist. Can you write well under pressure? Are you happy to travel and work long hours?

What is important to you? Do you want to have a high salary with a company car and a big bonus at the end of every year? Is your job title important? And what about the place where you work? How important is your relationship with your boss and the other employees? How important is the working environment? When people are asked these questions, interestingly money is hardly ever the most important factor.

So next time you pick up an application form, think about what you really want to achieve. You might find that you'll be happier working for less money with more free time. The question is, do we live to work or do we work to live?

Reading

10 Read the travel tips. Match the headings (1–5) with the paragraphs (A–F).

A

I love travelling and one of the most interesting things about being in another country is the way we are all so different. It's clear that the Chinese way of life will be very different from that of a Brazilian, but it's amazing how many differences there are in countries which are closer to home.

B

It's always useful to do some research before you go travelling so you can avoid embarrassing situations. I've prepared some handy tips for anyone who is thinking of going to Bulgaria, one of the most beautiful countries in south-eastern Europe and a country where tourism isn't as well developed as in other places.

C

One of the most confusing experiences you can have is the simple 'yes/no'! When you think the person you're talking to is agreeing with you by nodding their head up and down, they are in fact disagreeing. If someone shakes their head from side to side that means 'yes'. So remember, yes is no and no is yes! I can't tell you how often I bought things I didn't want in the market because I'd forgotten this simple difference.

D

When you visit someone's house you should always take your shoes off as a sign of respect. Your host will probably offer you a pair of house shoes to wear. If you are going for a meal, it is customary to take flowers or some wine and remember if you buy flowers, don't take an even number (2, 4, 6, 8 etc.) as even numbers are for the dead. A Bulgarian meal can last many hours so it's important to follow some simple rules if you don't want to put on a lot of weight! If you finish everything on your plate, this is a sign that you are still hungry, so your host will give you more food. Eat slowly and make sure you leave a little on your plate and then you'll be fine!

E

As in any country, the local people are always so pleased if foreigners try to learn a few words of the language, so before you go, buy a phrase book and impress everyone with your knowledge! Although the written language uses the Cyrillic script, which you probably won't be able to read, you'll find that most people (especially the young) can now speak a little English.

F

So, go and have a fabulous holiday and remember 'when in Rome do as the Romans do'. I'm collecting information on customs around the world so would love to hear from anyone who has an interesting story to tell.

Hi Rab

Good to hear from you. I'm sorry I haven't written for ages, but I've been trying to organise stuff for college. I don't know what it's like in Germany, but here it's a bit of a nightmare now as you need so much money to go to university.

I'm lucky that my parents can help me out a bit, but I don't really want to ask them for money. The tuition fees are thousands of pounds a year and that's just for the course and then I have to find somewhere to live. Most students take out a loan from the bank, but then we have to pay it back when we graduate and that can take years if we don't manage to get a good job. And I don't even want to think about how much interest we have to pay on that money. So, I I'll be in debt for some time unless I win the lottery!

I'm studying physics which is a three-year course and when I finish I'm going to apply for a scholarship to study in the US. That's the plan anyway. There are some very good research programmes over there and I think it would be fun to live abroad for a while. I know quite a few people who have studied in the States and they've loved it.

When school finishes in June, I'm going to get a summer job so I can try and save a bit of money before I head off. If I stay at home, I won't need to spend any money on food. I guess I could also sell my car because it's very expensive to run a car these days and I don't think I'll need it when I'm at college.

How do you manage Rab? Do you have a part-time job? What are university fees like in Germany? Is it the same as here or can you get a grant to help you?

We really must get together again soon as it's been a long time. Let me know what your plans are.

All the best

Last month we asked our readers to write and tell us about a special relationship in their lives. Thank you to everyone who wrote in; we enjoyed reading all your stories. Over the next few weeks, we'll be publishing some of your entries.

A friend for life

My friends have always been incredibly important to me as I'm an only child but one friend in particular, Clare, has always been special to me. We've known each other for almost twenty years and we met when we were both teaching at the same school. As soon as she introduced herself I knew that we would be friends. It was clear that we were very much on the same wavelength and had a lot in common - we're both very keen on sports amongst other things and after a couple of months we decided to share a flat together.

What is it that makes her such a good friend? Well, she's totally dependable, funny, tolerant, generous, kind-hearted and almost always upbeat. I can honestly say that in all the years I've known her we've hardly ever fallen out and if we have an argument, we make up very quickly. I really enjoy her company and we can spend hours together just messing around. We have the same sense of humour and spend a lot of time laughing at the silliest things.

Unfortunately, I had to move away recently because I'd been offered a new teaching job. I was worried that we might lose touch as we're no longer in the same country but we've managed to stay as close as ever. Clare is really good at keeping in touch with her family and friends and thanks to phone and email we're able to speak or write to one another almost every day.

Last year she invited me to Canada during the summer holiday to spend time with her family. It was so good to see where she grew up. Her childhood was so different from mine as she was brought up in the country while I grew up in a big city. She's the oldest of six children and the only one who didn't stay close to home so when she goes home she has a lot of catching up to do.

I can't imagine her not being in my life and I must say that I feel incredibly lucky to have her as a friend.

Avatar (2009)

One of the most successful films of all time, Avatar (directed by James Cameron) tells the story of a reluctant hero who sets off on an epic adventure to save the alien world he has learned to call home. Now available in 3-D and 2-D this visually spectacular film is a must-see for all the family with important messages for both young and old.

The Proposal (2009)

An ambitious and obnoxious boss (played by Sandra Bullock) hears that she will have to return to Canada as her visa has run out. To avoid deportation, she forces her young assistant (Ryan Reynolds) to marry her so that she can stay in the United States legally. After many crazy adventures to prove to his family that they do actually love one another, they finally really fall in love. This is a good old-fashioned feel-good comedy which is the perfect vehicle for both stars.

A Nightmare on Elm Street (2010)

As a fan of horror films, I was looking forward to this remake of the Wes Craven cult classic which first appeared on our screens almost twenty years ago. Terrifying when it first came out, this remake, however, doesn't compare in any way. The special effects are laughable and the acting is wooden. I'd recommend watching the original any day and I certainly hope they don't bother to remake the others.

The Young Victoria (2009)

Nominated for three Academy Awards and winner of Best Costume Design, this is a perfectly crafted period drama. The film stars Emily Blunt as the young Queen Victoria and Rupert Friend as her husband Albert. It tells the story of the first few years of her reign with all the dramas and emotions that a young woman in her position would have to face. The acting by both young stars is excellent and totally believable.

The Notebook (2004)

If you enjoy sickly sweet romantic films that unashamedly tug on the heart strings to make you cry, then this is most definitely the film for you. From the moment the film begins you know where it is taking you. Boy meets girl. Boy is poor and girl is rich. Girl's parents don't approve. Fast forward to years later ... Have your box of tissues to hand!

The Bourne Ultimatum (2007)

This is the third in the Bourne series starring the excellent Matt Damon. Filmed on location in Tangier, London, Paris, Madrid, Berlin and New York City, the story is fast-paced but to my mind rather confusing. My concentration was disturbed by the hand-held camera effect which meant that the film was constantly 'shaking'. I appreciate that this was supposed to heighten the tension but I found it almost impossible to focus in places.

Luke

I'm a student so I really can't afford to waste money. I have a part-time job during term time and then work full-time during the holidays. Even then it's hard but if you shop around, you really can find some good bargains. I always go shopping at the end of the day when a lot of food is reduced because it has reached its sell-by date. It's amazing how much you can save that way.

Marek

I've just moved to the UK. When I arrived I didn't have any furniture but someone told me about the 'freecycle' scheme and I've managed to get almost everything I need without spending any money. Basically, if you have something you don't want any more, you advertise it on the freecycle website and then anyone who wants it must agree to come and collect it. No-one makes any money so it really is a good exchange.

Akiko

I love shopping but I also enjoy buying things that are good value for money so I always wait until the sales are on. In some shops you can get as much as 70% off if you go at the right time. I probably don't save any money in the end though as I usually buy more things because I'm so pleased to have got a bargain!

Stella

We live way out in the country so I don't often manage to get to the shops and to be honest, I don't really have the time but if I do need something, I check out the price comparison websites and of course eBay. At first I was a little nervous about shopping on-line but now I'm hooked.

Jon

A lot of people these days seem to buy clothes, wear them a couple of times and then give them to charity shops so that's where I do my shopping. You can get some really good stuff and you know that your money is helping other people so it's a win-win situation in my opinion.

Paul

I must admit I don't think too much about how or where I shop but the one thing I try to do is save money on electricity and gas in the house. In the winter when it's really cold, instead of turning up the temperature I put on another sweater and I close the doors. I encourage the children to turn off the lights when they leave the room and we don't leave the TV or computer on standby as that uses up unnecessary energy.

Earlier this year my wife and I spent a few days on the Black Sea coast in Bulgaria. One of the highlights of our trip was an evening at a traditional restaurant which had wonderful views over the sea. The restaurant itself was right in the centre of the old part of the town and you could only get to it on foot.

1 _____

As soon as we arrived, we were welcomed by a charming waiter, Georgi, who showed us to a table in the window and immediately offered us a welcome drink. Although the menu was in English as well as Bulgarian, we asked for some recommendations as we didn't recognise any of the dishes. Georgi kindly explained what the specialities of the restaurant were so we took his advice and ordered a good variety.

2 _____

The food was excellent. We had a selection of starters or 'meze' including a yoghurt and cucumber salad, salami, vine leaves stuffed with rice and meat and a dip made of aubergine and mayonnaise, all served with freshly baked bread. We both had grilled fish and salad for the main course and this was followed by 'baklava', a deliciously sweet dessert made of nuts, pastry and syrup.

3 _____

The restaurant filled up quite quickly after we arrived. There was a band playing traditional music for most of the evening. This wasn't to everyone's taste but it was certainly very lively and colourful.

4 _____

When the bill came I was pleasantly surprised. I had expected to pay more considering the popularity of the restaurant and its situation. I suppose you might have to pay more during the summer when there are lots of tourists but it was a very good deal for us.

5 _____

For anyone interested in experiencing the true taste of Bulgaria, I think this would be an ideal place to go. I would, however, suggest eating early if you don't like loud music during your meal.

Hi Luke

How are you? How's the new house? Are you enjoying the nightlife in Buenos Aires?

I started my new job last month so I now have a good routine. I'm enjoying the work, but it's hard because I get up early every day (you know how I like to stay in bed late!). I try and go for a swim most days before work because there's a gym and swimming pool in the building. It's relaxing and I feel very good after the exercise. I'm in the office at 8:30 and first of all I check my emails. You can't imagine how many emails I get every day! Because we're an international company with offices all over the world, we get a lot of emails during the night as well, so we're always busy. There's no time to sit and do nothing! I've got some really nice colleagues and we usually go for lunch together on Fridays. On the other days, I go shopping or I go for a walk when the sun's shining and sometimes I stay at my desk and have a quick sandwich – not very healthy I know.

I don't know many people here, so I like going out at the weekends. Of course I have a lie-in on Saturday and Sunday and if there's an interesting exhibition on, I go to that. I want to join some local clubs as well, maybe hiking or tennis.

I'm having a lazy day today because I'm really tired and it's raining. I stayed in bed until 11 o'clock and now I'm sitting at the computer and writing emails to friends. I'm staying with my cousin at the moment, but I really want my own apartment. It's quite stressful because everything is so expensive here, but I'm looking. My cousin is very kind, but she enjoys doing different things and her lifestyle is quite different from mine.

This evening we're going to a concert together. I'm not sure who is playing, but I think it's a classical concert.

When I have my new apartment, you must come down and stay with me! Write soon and give me your news.

Sing!

Today a lot of singers and actors use their fame to raise money for charity. You only have to go on the internet and you can see just how many things they do. A celebrity name at a charity event can raise thousands of dollars and it is a good way for these people to give something back to the world that has made them rich and famous.

One such person is Scottish singer songwriter Annie Lennox. She was born on 25 December 1954 into a poor family. She grew up and went to school in Aberdeen and when she was seventeen she moved to London and went to the Royal Academy of Music where she studied the flute and classical music for three years.

A few years later she met Dave Stewart and between 1977 and 1980 they were in a group, The Tourists, where she was the lead singer. When the band split up, Annie and Dave formed a new band: Eurythmics. Together they recorded several albums. They sold more than 75 million albums worldwide, with over twenty international hits. They didn't officially separate but Annie started a solo career in the 1990s. Her first solo album, Diva, was released in 1992 and sold around six million copies. Since then she has recorded several albums.

However, Annie Lennox isn't just a successful singer and musician. She is a dynamic charity fundraiser* and over the years has achieved many great results. In 2007, she recorded a fundraising single called Sing with a 23-member choir of female celebrities including Madonna, Shakira, kd lang, Dido and Celine Dion. The money they raised went to Treatment Action Campaign (TAC), an organisation which works on the African continent.

Multi-award winning Annie Lennox has come a long way since the 1980s when she was the singer with Eurythmics. Since then, she has become a successful solo artist and has raised money for many charities including Amnesty International, Greenpeace and Nelson Mandela's 46664 Foundation. She does a lot of her charity work through the internet, which she calls 'Laptop Activism', and encourages everyone to do something to make a difference.

A

I was very happy to receive an invitation to the new Indian restaurant last week, so I called my dear friend Louis and we went to the Neel Akash, which means 'blue sky', to see what all the fuss was about.

B

The Neel Akash is near the town square at the end of Sussex Street, opposite the library. It is very central, so we walked there, but it is easy to get to from the train and bus stations and it also has its own car park.

C

The restaurant has only been open for two weeks, so it still feels very new. The décor is traditional with a lot of wood and dark reds and greens. The lighting isn't too bright and the atmosphere is warm and friendly. I particularly liked the flowers and candles on all the tables. There were already a lot of people there, so it was lively but not too noisy.

D

When we arrived, a pleasant young waiter showed us to our table which was in the window overlooking the garden. As soon as we sat down, another waiter brought the menu and took our drinks order. He explained the different dishes to us, recommended the specialities of the restaurant and then gave us some time to make our choices.

E

I love Indian food and wanted to taste everything, but in the end I ordered a selection of starters for us to share. We had shami kebab – spiced lamb, aloo chat – spicy potatoes, and egg akuri which is egg cooked with onions and served with bread. For my main course I had chicken tikka korma which is a mild chicken cooked in a cream sauce. I don't like very spicy food so that was hot enough for me. This came with delicious boiled rice and nan bread. My friend ordered a very spicy fish curry which he had with a side dish of raita which is yoghurt with cucumber. Everything looked perfect and tasted absolutely delicious.

F

When the bill came we were pleasantly surprised as it was very reasonable. We paid £20 per person which included drinks and a tip. For a cheaper option, you can have a buffet lunch during the week which costs £7.95 and you can eat as much as you like for that.

Hi Maria

How are you? I hope everything's OK over there and the sun is finally shining! It's been such a bad winter, hasn't it?!

This is the first time I've managed to get to an internet café, but I'm here now and have lots to tell you. I'm staying with friends of Dan's in Seattle. I didn't know them before I came here, but now I feel like part of the family. They've been so kind and have taken me all over the city.

It often rains here on the west coast, but the weather has been great since I've been here so I'm really lucky. On my first day, I decided to go downtown to walk along the water front. There's a famous market there called Pike Place Market. It's one of the oldest (over 100 years old) and biggest markets I've ever been to. I really couldn't believe my eyes! The colours and smells were just amazing. I had lunch in a restaurant called The Athenian where Tom Hanks ate in my favourite film Sleepless in Seattle. The views were fantastic, but the food wasn't that great.

I'm here for another week, so I want to visit some of the museums and galleries and maybe go to the theatre as well. We're going to the Space Needle (another big tourist attraction) for dinner this evening. The restaurant is at the top of the Needle and it moves round slowly so you can get a view of the whole city while you're eating. I'm really looking forward to it as they say the food is the best in the city.

Although I really like it here, I feel quite strange sometimes because of the language differences. I know we all speak English, but we don't really speak the same language at all. A lot of people here find it difficult to understand what I'm saying because of my accent and it's the same for me. And there are a lot of different words as well. Did you know that 'cookies' are 'biscuits' and 'pants' are 'trousers'?!

I think I can honestly say that I have never been to a country of so many superlatives. Everything here really is the biggest, the best, the smallest, the worst, the highest, the greatest. Welcome to America!

I've got to go now, but thanks again for looking after my flat (or is that apartment?!) while I'm here. I'll bring you back the best souvenir I can find!

I suppose when you're young you don't really think about the people around you.

(1) _____ Now that I'm a father, however, I think about things differently and I realise how lucky we were as children.

I grew up on a farm. I had two younger brothers and one older sister, so I was in the middle. Our father used to work very hard because it was his farm. (2) _____ Our mother used to teach at the local primary school so we spent a lot of time with our grandparents who lived with us.

Our grandmother was an amazing woman. She got married when she was very young and she had six children, which was quite usual in those days. She stayed at home to look after all of them, but when they were older she decided she wanted to go to university. She graduated when she was fifty years old. (3)

9 Read the guide to Bratislava. According to the text, are the statements true (T), false (F) or not given (NG)?

Slovakia joined the European Union in 2004 and since then it has become more and more popular with international tourists. There are many beautiful cities to visit, but the best known, and the largest, is Bratislava with a population of around half a million. Not as well-known as other central European cities like Budapest, Prague and Vienna, however, Bratislava remains relatively unspoilt. It lies on the river Danube with neighbours Hungary to the south and Austria to the west.

There is something for everyone here. You have to visit the old town and the castle and you can spend hours walking through old streets looking at the wonderful architecture of the old buildings. There is an eleventh-century cathedral as well as many palaces, museums and art galleries.

If you enjoy films, you should come to the international film festival which takes place every year in November and December. In fact, there are many other film festivals during the year as well.

For shoppers, there are a lot of small shops and boutiques where you can easily spend many hours. And you shouldn't miss the Christmas markets in December where you can buy traditional decorations and try traditional Slovak food and drink. There's always a great atmosphere and it is certainly a pleasant way to meet the local people.

For people who are more interested in activity holidays, the nearby mountains offer great sporting opportunities. In the summer, you can go hiking or cycling along the excellent walking trails or if you are brave, you can go swimming in the icy mountain lakes. In the winter, the conditions are usually excellent for skiing. If you prefer to watch sport, then you can watch a noisy hockey game.

Bratislava offers all kinds of accommodation from cheap hostels to luxury hotels. The nightlife is exciting with clubs, bars and restaurants. So why wait? Come and see the beauty for yourself and we're sure you'll want to come back again and again.

I've got some really important exams next week. If I don't get really good results, I won't get a place to study medicine at university and it has always been my dream to become a doctor. I'm not sleeping and I can't concentrate and I've lost my appetite as well. Can anyone offer me some good advice?

Desperate, Brighton

Have you tried yoga? I know it sounds crazy, but sometimes you really need to just close your mind and stop thinking. There are a lot of yoga books and DVDs around, so you don't have to join a class. Since I started doing yoga a year ago, I can't tell you how much my life has changed. You find some kind of inner quiet where your mind stops 'talking', you concentrate on your breathing and you feel energised afterwards.

Ronnie, Sydney

Physical exercise is really important for balance. Our lives are so busy these days. We have deadlines, targets, ambitions and challenges and while we are so busy following these dreams, we forget about balance. Most of us live in our heads all the time. If you're like me, you probably spend a lot of time at the computer or sitting with books and papers. You should take a break from studying at least once an hour. If you have a garden, go outside and just look at the flowers and trees and listen to the birds.

Max, Los Angeles

Sing! That's my advice. Put on your favourite music, dance and sing. Don't worry about the neighbours or the dog! Whenever I feel depressed or stressed I put on some music. Simple as that and I'll bet you fly through your exams.

Lydia, Jo'burg

Go to the gym as often as you can. Physically hard exercise makes you feel much more alive and focused. You should try to train at least four times a week and of course it's important to eat healthily as well. Try not to eat sweet things as the high you get from the sugar disappears very quickly.

Brad, Ontario

You need to switch off your brain so why don't you get some DVDs of your favourite comedies and treat yourself to an hour every day before you go to bed? Then you'll go to sleep feeling happy, not thinking about physics and chemistry. While you sleep your brain will process all the things you have learned during the day, but in a better way.

Hi Laura

It was great to get your email the other day with all your news. I'm so glad that things are going well with Paul. He sounds really nice. When can I meet him?!

Speaking of men ... guess what – I've met someone too! A friend of mine Carol (I don't think you've met her) suggested speed-dating as she's been on her own for a long time and she'd like to meet someone special now. Well, you know me ... I always enjoy doing different things, so I agreed to go. Actually, I wasn't looking for anyone for myself as I'm quite happy on my own, but I knew that Carol wouldn't go if I didn't go with her.

So, we arrived at the venue – it was a big private room in the town hall. We were a little early, so we sat down and had a drink. I think Carol was quite nervous. I didn't know what to expect so I felt fine! At 7 o'clock exactly, the organisers started the evening and they explained what we had to do. So, all the women sat down at small tables and the men walked around. We had three minutes to talk to each man. Some of them were really boring, but one or two were actually quite interesting. Well, one was very interesting!

Then we changed places and the women walked round. It's a very strange way to meet people I must say, but at the end of the evening Martin came up to me and asked me out (you shouldn't really do that but he decided to break the rules!). I was very surprised, but I agreed to go and we went on our first date yesterday. He took me to his favourite Thai restaurant and as I love spicy food I was very happy with his choice! We didn't stop talking and the time went so quickly. He's taking me out again at the weekend. We're going to go for a picnic on the beach.

Who knows what might happen, but I certainly wasn't expecting anything like this. Unfortunately Carol didn't meet anyone, so I feel a bit bad as it was her idea in the first place.

Let's meet up next week and go for a pizza.

When you realise how much of your life you will spend working, it's important to make good choices when you think about the career you want to follow. Our parents retired when they were sixty or sixty-five but in the future the retirement age may rise to seventy which means that an average person will be in employment for about fifty years! It's a frightening thought if you're doing something you don't enjoy.

There are so many jobs to choose from and so much information available. You can do research on the internet, get advice from your school or college, ask friends and family or perhaps you'll be one of the lucky ones and know exactly what you want to do when you are very young. The majority of people aren't born, however, knowing that they want to be a musician or a writer or a surgeon or an explorer, so for them the choices are difficult.

If you want to run your own company, do you have the right personality? Are you determined, organised and motivated? If you want to be a teacher, do you love your subject? Are you patient and relaxed? Perhaps you want to be a journalist. Can you write well under pressure? Are you happy to travel and work long hours?

What is important to you? Do you want to have a high salary with a company car and a big bonus at the end of every year? Is your job title important? And what about the place where you work? How important is your relationship with your boss and the other employees? How important is the working environment? When people are asked these questions, interestingly money is hardly ever the most important factor.

So next time you pick up an application form, think about what you really want to achieve. You might find that you'll be happier working for less money with more free time. The question is, do we live to work or do we work to live?

A

I love travelling and one of the most interesting things about being in another country is the way we are all so different. It's clear that the Chinese way of life will be very different from that of a Brazilian, but it's amazing how many differences there are in countries which are closer to home.

B

It's always useful to do some research before you go travelling so you can avoid embarrassing situations. I've prepared some handy tips for anyone who is thinking of going to Bulgaria, one of the most beautiful countries in south-eastern Europe and a country where tourism isn't as well developed as in other places.

C

One of the most confusing experiences you can have is the simple 'yes/no'! When you think the person you're talking to is agreeing with you by nodding their head up and down, they are in fact disagreeing. If someone shakes their head from side to side that means 'yes'. So remember, yes is no and no is yes! I can't tell you how often I bought things I didn't want in the market because I'd forgotten this simple difference.

D

When you visit someone's house you should always take your shoes off as a sign of respect. Your host will probably offer you a pair of house shoes to wear. If you are going for a meal, it is customary to take flowers or some wine and remember if you buy flowers, don't take an even number (2, 4, 6, 8 etc.) as even numbers are for the dead. A Bulgarian meal can last many hours so it's important to follow some simple rules if you don't want to put on a lot of weight! If you finish everything on your plate, this is a sign that you are still hungry, so your host will give you more food. Eat slowly and make sure you leave a little on your plate and then you'll be fine!

E

As in any country, the local people are always so pleased if foreigners try to learn a few words of the language, so before you go, buy a phrase book and impress everyone with your knowledge! Although the written language uses the Cyrillic script, which you probably won't be able to read, you'll find that most people (especially the young) can now speak a little English.

F

So, go and have a fabulous holiday and remember 'when in Rome do as the Romans do'. I'm collecting information on customs around the world so would love to hear from anyone who has an interesting story to tell.

Hi Rab

Good to hear from you. I'm sorry I haven't written for ages, but I've been trying to organise stuff for college. I don't know what it's like in Germany, but here it's a bit of a nightmare now as you need so much money to go to university.

I'm lucky that my parents can help me out a bit, but I don't really want to ask them for money. The tuition fees are thousands of pounds a year and that's just for the course and then I have to find somewhere to live. Most students take out a loan from the bank, but then we have to pay it back when we graduate and that can take years if we don't manage to get a good job. And I don't even want to think about how much interest we have to pay on that money. So, I'll be in debt for some time unless I win the lottery!

I'm studying physics which is a three-year course and when I finish I'm going to apply for a scholarship to study in the US. That's the plan anyway. There are some very good research programmes over there and I think it would be fun to live abroad for a while. I know quite a few people who have studied in the States and they've loved it.

When school finishes in June, I'm going to get a summer job so I can try and save a bit of money before I head off. If I stay at home, I won't need to spend any money on food. I guess I could also sell my car because it's very expensive to run a car these days and I don't think I'll need it when I'm at college.

How do you manage Rab? Do you have a part-time job? What are university fees like in Germany? Is it the same as here or can you get a grant to help you?

We really must get together again soon as it's been a long time. Let me know what your plans are.

All the best

Mario

10 Read this magazine article. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)?

Last month we asked our readers to write and tell us about a special relationship in their lives. Thank you to everyone who wrote in; we enjoyed reading all your stories. Over the next few weeks, we'll be publishing some of your entries.

A friend for life

My friends have always been incredibly important to me as I'm an only child but one friend in particular, Clare, has always been special to me. We've known each other for almost twenty years and we met when we were both teaching at the same school. As soon as she introduced herself I knew that we would be friends. It was clear that we were very much on the same wavelength and had a lot in common - we're both very keen on sports amongst other things and after a couple of months we decided to share a flat together.

What is it that makes her such a good friend? Well, she's totally dependable, funny, tolerant, generous, kind-hearted and almost always upbeat. I can honestly say that in all the years I've known her we've hardly ever fallen out and if we have an argument, we make up very quickly. I really enjoy her company and we can spend hours together just messing around. We have the same sense of humour and spend a lot of time laughing at the silliest things.

Unfortunately, I had to move away recently because I'd been offered a new teaching job. I was worried that we might lose touch as we're no longer in the same country but we've managed to stay as close as ever. Clare is really good at keeping in touch with her family and friends and thanks to phone and email we're able to speak or write to one another almost every day.

Last year she invited me to Canada during the summer holiday to spend time with her family. It was so good to see where she grew up. Her childhood was so different from mine as she was brought up in the country while I grew up in a big city. She's the oldest of six children and the only one who didn't stay close to home so when she goes home she has a lot of catching up to do.

I can't imagine her not being in my life and I must say that I feel incredibly lucky to have her as a friend.

Avatar (2009)

One of the most successful films of all time, Avatar (directed by James Cameron) tells the story of a reluctant hero who sets off on an epic adventure to save the alien world he has learned to call home. Now available in 3-D and 2-D this visually spectacular film is a must-see for all the family with important messages for both young and old.

The Proposal (2009)

An ambitious and obnoxious boss (played by Sandra Bullock) hears that she will have to return to Canada as her visa has run out. To avoid deportation, she forces her young assistant (Ryan Reynolds) to marry her so that she can stay in the United States legally. After many crazy adventures to prove to his family that they do actually love one another, they finally really fall in love. This is a good old-fashioned feel-good comedy which is the perfect vehicle for both stars.

A Nightmare on Elm Street (2010)

As a fan of horror films, I was looking forward to this remake of the Wes Craven cult classic which first appeared on our screens almost twenty years ago. Terrifying when it first came out, this remake, however, doesn't compare in any way. The special effects are laughable and the acting is wooden. I'd recommend watching the original any day and I certainly hope they don't bother to remake the others.

The Young Victoria (2009)

Nominated for three Academy Awards and winner of Best Costume Design, this is a perfectly crafted period drama. The film stars Emily Blunt as the young Queen Victoria and Rupert Friend as her husband Albert. It tells the story of the first few years of her reign with all the dramas and emotions that a young woman in her position would have to face. The acting by both young stars is excellent and totally believable.

The Notebook (2004)

If you enjoy sickly sweet romantic films that unashamedly tug on the heart strings to make you cry, then this is most definitely the film for you. From the moment the film begins you know where it is taking you. Boy meets girl. Boy is poor and girl is rich. Girl's parents don't approve. Fast forward to years later ... Have your box of tissues to hand!

The Bourne Ultimatum (2007)

This is the third in the Bourne series starring the excellent Matt Damon. Filmed on location in Tangier, London, Paris, Madrid, Berlin and New York City, the story is fast-paced but to my mind rather confusing. My concentration was disturbed by the hand-held camera effect which meant that the film was constantly 'shaking'. I appreciate that this was supposed to heighten the tension but I found it almost impossible to focus in places.

Hi Ben

How are you and how are the children? (0) _____ b _____ I can't believe it's September and I've already been here for a month. I'm sorry it's taken so long to write to you but I had to wait for my computer to be connected to the Internet. (1) _____

I can't remember if you've been to Prague before but I can honestly say that it's one of the most beautiful cities I've ever seen. (2) _____ Although the centre is touristy, there are lots of green spaces so it doesn't feel too crowded and of course there's a river as well so that gives you a sense of space.

I decided to wait until I got here before looking for somewhere to live because I wanted to get an idea of what the different neighbourhoods were like. I think it's hard to make a decision without seeing a place first so I spent a couple of weeks with Jana when I first arrived and was lucky to find a small apartment in a residential area near the city centre. (3) _____ As you know, I really enjoy going out in the evenings so this is ideal because I can walk home most of the time and it's only a couple of stops on the tram or metro.

The flat's on the fourth floor with a great view over an enormous square. At night it's pretty quiet but during the day the square's always bustling with lots of people. There are lots of traditional street cafés and bars so there's a great atmosphere and I often go downstairs to have a coffee and read the paper. (4) _____

Luke

I'm a student so I really can't afford to waste money. I have a part-time job during term time and then work full-time during the holidays. Even then it's hard but if you shop around, you really can find some good bargains. I always go shopping at the end of the day when a lot of food is reduced because it has reached its sell-by date. It's amazing how much you can save that way.

Marek

I've just moved to the UK. When I arrived I didn't have any furniture but someone told me about the 'freecycle' scheme and I've managed to get almost everything I need without spending any money. Basically, if you have something you don't want any more, you advertise it on the freecycle website and then anyone who wants it must agree to come and collect it. No-one makes any money so it really is a good exchange.

Akiko

I love shopping but I also enjoy buying things that are good value for money so I always wait until the sales are on. In some shops you can get as much as 70% off if you go at the right time. I probably don't save any money in the end though as I usually buy more things because I'm so pleased to have got a bargain!

Stella

We live way out in the country so I don't often manage to get to the shops and to be honest, I don't really have the time but if I do need something, I check out the price comparison websites and of course eBay. At first I was a little nervous about shopping on-line but now I'm hooked.

Jon

A lot of people these days seem to buy clothes, wear them a couple of times and then give them to charity shops so that's where I do my shopping. You can get some really good stuff and you know that your money is helping other people so it's a win-win situation in my opinion.

Paul

I must admit I don't think too much about how or where I shop but the one thing I try to do is save money on electricity and gas in the house. In the winter when it's really cold, instead of turning up the temperature I put on another sweater and I close the doors. I encourage the children to turn off the lights when they leave the room and we don't leave the TV or computer on standby as that uses up unnecessary energy.

atmosphere location menu prices recommendation service

One of the things I enjoy most about travelling is that I get the chance to visit restaurants all over the world. I have been very fortunate over the years as I have tried all kinds of regional delicacies and specialities.

0 location

Earlier this year my wife and I spent a few days on the Black Sea coast in Bulgaria. One of the highlights of our trip was an evening at a traditional restaurant which had wonderful views over the sea. The restaurant itself was right in the centre of the old part of the town and you could only get to it on foot.

1 _____

As soon as we arrived, we were welcomed by a charming waiter, Georgi, who showed us to a table in the window and immediately offered us a welcome drink. Although the menu was in English as well as Bulgarian, we asked for some recommendations as we didn't recognise any of the dishes. Georgi kindly explained what the specialities of the restaurant were so we took his advice and ordered a good variety.

2 _____

The food was excellent. We had a selection of starters or 'meze' including a yoghurt and cucumber salad, salami, vine leaves stuffed with rice and meat and a dip made of aubergine and mayonnaise, all served with freshly baked bread. We both had grilled fish and salad for the main course and this was followed by 'baklava', a deliciously sweet dessert made of nuts, pastry and syrup.

3 _____

The restaurant filled up quite quickly after we arrived. There was a band playing traditional music for most of the evening. This wasn't to everyone's taste but it was certainly very lively and colourful.

4 _____

When the bill came I was pleasantly surprised. I had expected to pay more considering the popularity of the restaurant and its situation. I suppose you might have to pay more during the summer when there are lots of tourists but it was a very good deal for us.

5 _____

For anyone interested in experiencing the true taste of Bulgaria, I think this would be an ideal place to go. I would, however, suggest eating early if you don't like loud music during your meal.

9 Read the restaurant reviews. Are the sentences about Ristorante Napoli (RN) or Jo's Diner (JD)?

What's new in town?

Ristorante Napoli

Ristorante Napoli is a large, modern restaurant in the centre of town.

They offer a large selection of dishes including a lot of vegetarian food. I recommend: the seafood starter with green salad and fresh bread. As a main dish, you can choose from pizzas or pasta. The spicy vegetarian pizza with mushrooms, peppers and cheese is very good. For meat eaters there are beef, chicken and lamb dishes with side orders of potatoes, rice or salad. The desserts are also excellent with an exotic fresh fruit salad (watermelon, pineapple, banana and orange), ice cream and sorbet (strawberry, chocolate, vanilla, lemon, orange), and traditional Italian cakes.

Open for lunch (12 p.m. – 3 p.m.) and for supper (6:30 p.m. – 11:30 p.m.). Closed on Mondays.

Cost: €35 per person for three courses, mineral water and coffee.

Joe's Diner

Joe's Diner is a busy, traditional fast-food restaurant for people who don't have much time.

This is the perfect restaurant for families with children. They offer two different menus: breakfast and lunch/dinner. The lunch menu is good value and offers everything that children love to eat: hamburgers and cheeseburgers with fries, or hot dogs with fries are their speciality. These come with a side order of salad and garlic bread. You can have a free bottle of cola, juice or mineral water when you order three meals. For vegetarians there is only one option – a veggie burger with fries. For dessert you can have apple pie with vanilla ice cream or cheesecake.

Open every day, twelve hours a day 8 a.m. – 8 p.m.

Cost: €6 per person

Hi Nico

How are you? I hope everything is fine and you like your new job.

I've got so much news to tell you. I've got a new job too ... English teacher in a language school in Sofia. Do you know anything about Bulgaria? Well, Sofia is the capital and it's in the west of the country near the borders with Serbia, Macedonia and Greece. It's in a valley very near Vitosha – a beautiful mountain. You can go for fantastic walks in the forests there.

I've got a small apartment in an old building near the city centre. It's quite high up so I can see a lot of interesting things from my bedroom window. There are over one million people here and it's a busy, noisy city.

My apartment is quite small and quiet. I've got a bedroom, living room, kitchen and bathroom so it's good for one person. In the kitchen there's a cooker, dishwasher (very nice!), fridge and microwave. You know I can't cook so that's very useful! The bedroom is quite small with a bed, cupboard and some bookshelves. The living room is very big with a sofa (where you can sleep when you come to visit me), table and chairs and lots of bookshelves. There's even a TV and a music system so I'm very happy.

I really like it here. There are a lot of things to see and do and there's a great restaurant on my street. It's a traditional Bulgarian place with live music every Friday and Saturday.

My first day at school is tomorrow so wish me luck!

Write soon.

Hi Lucy

I'm here in Prague on a weekend break with my sister. We arrived at the airport at three o'clock yesterday afternoon and we took the bus and metro into the city centre and went to our hotel. It's a lovely old building near the river. We walked around the old town for an hour and then found a cosy restaurant for supper. I love the Czech food but it's difficult for Ginny because she's a vegetarian.

Did you know I came to Prague for the first time twenty years ago? It's very different now. In those days there were only a few department stores and there weren't any shopping centres. And the restaurants were really bad and it wasn't often possible to have a meal without meat! I loved it though because it was very different from other big cities because you can walk everywhere when you're in the centre of the city. I'm pleased that some things are still the same. The buildings in the old town are still beautiful and there are lots of churches, art galleries, museums and cafés to visit. I love music and opera so we got tickets for an opera at the National Theatre for this evening.

Ginny isn't very interested in sightseeing. I don't understand her but because I know Prague, I'm happy to go shopping with her.

See you soon dear friend.

Hi everyone!

This is the end of the first week of the new term and I've got lots of new classmates I want to tell you about! There are twelve students in this class. We're Class A and we come from a lot of different countries. It's really funny because we only speak English. I can't speak Spanish or Czech or Japanese and I only know a few words in German and French. I think it's good for us.

Stefan is from Munich in Germany. I think his English is good. I like him because he's very friendly. He's slim and tall with dark hair. He wears glasses and he has a lovely smile. I'm sure all the girls think he's handsome! Then there's Michael who's also from Germany but he's quite unfriendly.

Zdenka is from the Czech Republic. She's quite shy so I don't know her very well. She's very tanned with long fair hair and she's very attractive. The boys all like her of course.

I usually sit next to Ana who's from Spain. I can't understand her English because she has a strong accent but I like her very much. She's very confident and pretty with short dark hair. She's quite short and very slim.

Akiko is from Japan, from Kyoto I think. She's a lovely person but very quiet. I think she's shy and her English isn't very good. She spends time with the other Japanese girl Keiko. I think they live in the same house too.

Our teacher, Greg, is from Australia. He's tall with a grey beard and moustache. I don't know how old he is but maybe fifty. He's very funny and friendly and he always helps us. I think he's very good.

So, that's it for now. Please write back and give me your news.

10 Read Tilly's blog and choose the correct answers.

It's 5:30 in the afternoon on Saturday 5th June and I'm sitting in the grass outside Salisbury Cathedral with thousands of people. I arrived in England yesterday after two weeks in France. I decided to come here and visit my friends Clare and Tom. They're from the USA but they're travelling around England at the moment. They told me about this fantastic city so now I'm here too!

We're all here for the final concert of the Salisbury International Arts Festival. The Festival takes place at the same time every year and every year there is a different theme. This year it's India so everything is connected with the country – music, theatre, films, books and food! Luckily today the weather is fantastic but yesterday it was terrible. The sun is shining and there aren't any clouds in the sky. The atmosphere is great and everyone is enjoying themselves. There are families with children, students, old people, in fact people of all ages from zero to eighty! There are lots of activities for the children so they're all very happy and running around. Most people have picnics with them as well.

My friend Claire made some delicious food this morning so we have sandwiches, salads, a huge chocolate cake, fruit and drinks. We brought some small chairs so we're very comfortable and we're not far from the musicians. No-one is playing at the moment but the programme looks very interesting. There are three bands and the first band starts at 6:00 p.m. I love Indian music so I hope we can dance. There's space at the front so I'm sure we can.

People say that the English people aren't very friendly but I can say that everyone here is very kind and helpful. I'm having a great time!

Tilly is writing her blog _____.

a in England b in France c in the USA

1 She's visiting _____.

2 The Salisbury Festival takes place _____.

Schooldays – the happiest days of your life? Send us your thoughts and win a new laptop!

When I was at primary school I really didn't enjoy school. Everyone said 'come on Jenny. These are the best days of your life!' I didn't believe them. I always left my homework until the last minute and I remember Mum. She got so angry with me. 'Sit down and do your homework NOW!' But I wanted to talk on the phone or play computer games with my friends. 'I said SIT DOWN!' It was the same thing every Sunday evening. I feel sorry for her now of course.

Then when I was eleven and went to secondary school, everything changed. And that was because of one teacher: Mrs Mann. She was our maths teacher. I didn't think I was good at maths but she showed me that I was. She was so interesting and funny and she was very young and attractive too I remember. She had long fair hair and wore really nice clothes. She was probably in her mid-twenties. We all enjoyed her lessons. She always had time for us. She was always in a good mood and she never shouted at us. Mum never had to tell me to do my homework after I met Mrs Mann! When I got home after school, I did my homework immediately because I wanted to do well.

In fact I enjoyed Mrs Mann's lessons so much that I decided to study maths at university. I know she was pleased. When I was a student I wrote to her every term and sometimes we met during the holidays. That was twenty years ago. And now I'm a maths lecturer at the university where I studied. I hope that my students enjoy studying with me as much as I enjoyed learning with Mrs Mann.

Jenny liked school when he was young.

Trekking is always good because you don't have to be extremely fit but it's a good idea to do some training before you go of course. People usually go in groups so you can meet new people and make friends while you're walking. This year I'm going to do the Great Wall of China trek. I've always wanted to go to China. It's nice to think that you can have fun and do something useful at the same time.

Gary

Do you know how to sail? We're going to go on the Fastnet Sailing Challenge. I've been a sailor since I was a child so I feel very comfortable on the sea but I know that this race is only for people who have had a lot of experience and it's very tough. The weather can be really bad at that time of year as well. It's definitely not for someone who can't swim!

Paula

I love horses so I'm going to do the Mongolian Horse-riding Challenge. I've seen so many pictures of Mongolia in books and on the Internet and now I'm really going to raise the money to go there. It's for two weeks and we're going to do it in the summer so it's going to be very hot in the desert, and cold at night of course. I'm busy raising money at the moment but hope to have all the money I need soon.

Casey

Why don't you think about the London to Paris Cycle Ride? Hundreds of people are going to enter. It's tough but not that tough and you can go at your own speed. You don't have to race. It's good for all ages too and last year there were a few people in their seventies. The good thing is that you don't have to fly anywhere to start the fun.

Anne

You don't have to go abroad to raise money! Why don't you organise some events in your local area? There are so many things you can do. In the past I've organised concerts, parties, talent shows and coffee mornings. That way you also meet local people. I think it's good to invite friends and neighbours to help.

Jenny

Lucinda doesn't have any fundraising experience.

T

- 1 Gary recommends getting fit before a trek.
- 2 Paula can't swim.
- 3 Casey hasn't raised enough money.
- 4 In the London to Paris Cycle Ride it is important to finish as fast as you can.
- 5 Jenny likes raising money at home.

5. Методические указания для обучающихся по освоению дисциплины (модуля)

5.1 Методические указания по организации самостоятельной работы обучающихся:

Приступая к изучению дисциплины, в первую очередь обучающимся необходимо ознакомиться содержанием рабочей программы дисциплины (РПД), которая определяет содержание, объем, а также порядок изучения и преподавания учебной дисциплины, ее раздела, части.

Для самостоятельной работы важное значение имеют разделы «Объем и содержание дисциплины», «Учебно-методическое и информационное обеспечение дисциплины» и «Материально-техническое обеспечение дисциплины, программное обеспечение, профессиональные базы данных и информационные справочные системы».

В разделе «Объем и содержание дисциплины» указываются все разделы и темы изучаемой дисциплины, а также виды занятий и планируемый объем в академических часах.

В разделе «Учебно-методическое и информационное обеспечение дисциплины» указана рекомендуемая основная и дополнительная литература.

В разделе «Материально-техническое обеспечение дисциплины, программное обеспечение, профессиональные базы данных и информационные справочные системы» содержится перечень профессиональных баз данных и информационных справочных систем, необходимых для освоения дисциплины.

5.2 Рекомендации обучающимся по работе с теоретическими материалами по дисциплине

При изучении и проработке теоретического материала необходимо:

- просмотреть еще раз презентацию лекции в системе MOODLe, повторить законспектированный на лекционном занятии материал и дополнить его с учетом рекомендованной дополнительной литературы;
- при самостоятельном изучении теоретической темы сделать конспект, используя рекомендованные в РПД источники, профессиональные базы данных и информационные справочные системы;
- ответить на вопросы для самостоятельной работы, по теме представленные в пункте 3.2 РПД.
- при подготовке к текущему контролю использовать материалы фонда оценочных средств (ФОС).

5.3 Рекомендации по работе с научной и учебной литературой

Работа с основной и дополнительной литературой является главной формой самостоятельной работы и необходима при подготовке к устному опросу на семинарских занятиях, к дебатам, тестированию, экзамену. Она включает проработку лекционного материала и рекомендованных источников и литературы по тематике лекций.

Конспект лекции должен содержать реферативную запись основных вопросов лекции, в том числе с опорой на размещенные в системе MOODLe презентации, основных источников и литературы по темам, выводы по каждому вопросу. Конспект может быть выполнен в рамках распечатки выдачи презентаций лекций или в отдельной тетради по предмету. Он должен быть аккуратным, хорошо читаемым, не содержать не относящуюся к теме информацию или рисунки.

Конспекты научной литературы при самостоятельной подготовке к занятиям должны содержать ответы на каждый поставленный в теме вопрос, иметь ссылку на источник информации с обязательным указанием автора, названия и года издания используемой научной литературы. Конспект может быть опорным (содержать лишь основные ключевые позиции), но при этом позволяющим дать полный ответ по вопросу, может быть подробным. Объем конспекта определяется самим студентом.

В процессе работы с основной и дополнительной литературой студент может:

- делать записи по ходу чтения в виде простого или развернутого плана (создавать перечень основных вопросов, рассмотренных в источнике);
- составлять тезисы (цитирование наиболее важных мест статьи или монографии, короткое изложение основных мыслей автора);
- готовить аннотации (краткое обобщение основных вопросов работы);
- создавать конспекты (развернутые тезисы).

5.4. Рекомендации по подготовке к отдельным заданиям текущего контроля

Собеседование предполагает организацию беседы преподавателя со студентами по вопросам практического занятия с целью более обстоятельного выявления их знаний по определенному разделу, теме, проблеме и т.п. Все члены группы могут участвовать в обсуждении, добавлять информацию, дискутировать, задавать вопросы и т.д.

Устный опрос может применяться в различных формах: фронтальный, индивидуальный, комбинированный. Основные качества устного ответа подлежащего оценке:

- правильность ответа по содержанию;
- полнота и глубина ответа;
- сознательность ответа;
- логика изложения материала;
- рациональность использованных приемов и способов решения поставленной учебной задачи;
- своевременность и эффективность использования наглядных пособий и технических средств при ответе;
- использование дополнительного материала;
- рациональность использования времени, отведенного на задание.

Устный опрос может сопровождаться презентацией, которая подготавливается по одному из вопросов практического занятия. При выступлении с презентацией необходимо обращать внимание на такие моменты как:

- содержание презентации: актуальность темы, полнота ее раскрытия, смысловое содержание, соответствие заявленной темы содержанию, соответствие методическим требованиям (цели, ссылки на ресурсы, соответствие содержания и литературы), практическая направленность, соответствие содержания заявленной форме, адекватность использования технических средств учебным задачам, последовательность и логичность презентуемого материала;
- оформление презентации: объем (оптимальное количество), дизайн (читаемость, наличие и соответствие графики и анимации, звуковое оформление, структурирование информации, соответствие заявленным требованиям), оригинальность оформления, эстетика, использование возможности программной среды, соответствие стандартам оформления;
- личностные качества: ораторские способности, соблюдение регламента, эмоциональность, умение ответить на вопросы, систематизированные, глубокие и полные знания по всем разделам программы;
- содержание выступления: логичность изложения материала, раскрытие темы, доступность изложения, эффективность применения средств ИКТ, способы и условия достижения результативности и эффективности для выполнения задач своей профессиональной или учебной деятельности, доказательность принимаемых решений, умение аргументировать свои заключения, выводы.
